Accreditations

Security Industry authority (SIA) in the Private Security Act 2001 has commissioned the licensing of security officers working within the industry since March 2006. The SIA has set standards of training and professionalism for security companies in order for them to improve the quality of the service they deliver to their customers. BGN Security Services Limited is a Security Industry Authority Approved Contractor for the provision of Security Guarding.

BGN Security Services Limited has been employing a British Standards compliant set of procedures since its inception. From employing a security officer, to the management of sites and looking after clients' interests a robust procedure had been used. Since being awarded our BS EN ISO 9001-2015 Certificate we now have a comprehensive quality manual to work to follow. This allows us to offer our customers the best possible service and a system through which to improve this service at every level of our organisation.
